HAY SHOW 2025 HANDWRITING POEM

When Hay Shines

In Hay the sun shines bright and clear
The crops grow strong, year after year

Sheep graze gently near the river
Their wool keeps out our coldest shiver

The wheat stands tall in golden rows
We cheer with joy when the rainfall flows

Big trucks roll down the dusty tracks
With hay bales loaded on their backs

Cotton grows in fields so wide
Yellow modules stacked neatly with pride

From farm to fork across the land
We all need food that's grown by hand
