

Intimate Celebrations & Elopements

FALLS CREEK, NSW

INTIMATE ELOPEMENTS, MICRO WEDDINGS, ROMANTIC STAYS AND SPECIAL OCCASIONS

Where nature, privacy and meaningful moments come together

Nestled on a peaceful rural property in Falls Creek, NSW, Silver Gums offers couples an intimate setting for elopements, proposals, romantic weekends and special celebrations.

Surrounded by towering gum trees, open paddocks and \country views, the property provides a relaxed and authentic backdrop for couples seeking a more personal experience away from traditional venues.

Whether exchanging vows beneath the trees, sharing a private picnic by the gazebo, or enjoying a quiet weekend with loved ones, Silver Gums is designed to create memories that feel effortless, natural and uniquely yours.

Planning Your Day

Keeping Silver Gums Peaceful

Silver Gums is designed for intimate ceremonies and relaxed daytime celebrations. To preserve the peaceful atmosphere of the property and respect our neighbours, celebrations conclude by 6:00 pm, with day guests departing at this time.

Couples wishing to continue celebrating into the evening are invited to enjoy one of the many wonderful local restaurants or reception venues nearby, and we're always happy to provide recommendations.

After Your Celebration

We simply ask that all styling items, personal belongings and rubbish are removed before departure, leaving the property ready for our next guests. If you've engaged external suppliers, they're responsible for removing their own equipment and leaving their work areas clean.

FAQs

Can we choose our own celebrant and photographer?

Absolutely. You're welcome to choose your own suppliers, or we're happy to recommend trusted local professionals from our Preferred Vendor Guide.

Can we bring our dog?

- Well-behaved dogs are welcome to be part of your ceremony by prior arrangement.
- Dogs must remain on a lead at all times while on the property.
- Unfortunately, dogs are not permitted to stay overnight.

We can recommend trusted local pet chaperone services.

How many guests can we have?

Our packages are designed for up to 20 daytime guests, with accommodation available for up to 8 overnight guests.

Can we have alcohol?

Yes. You're welcome to enjoy alcohol as part of your celebration. Responsible service and consumption is expected at all times.

Can we continue celebrating into the evening?

Silver Gums specialises in intimate ceremonies and relaxed daytime celebrations. To preserve the peaceful atmosphere of the property and respect our neighbours, celebrations conclude by 6:00 pm. We're happy to recommend local restaurants and reception venues if you'd like to continue celebrating.

What happens if it rains?

We have a number of beautiful wet weather options to ensure your day remains relaxed and memorable.

- Guests can be comfortably seated on the verandah while you exchange your vows overlooking the gardens.
- Clear umbrellas are available for the couple, creating beautiful photographs whatever the weather.
- If you prefer to remain on the ceremony lawn, you're welcome to arrange a marquee to be erected prior to your celebration (subject to prior approval and suitable ground conditions).

We'll work with you in the lead-up to your ceremony to choose the best option based on the forecast

Can we decorate the property?

Absolutely! We encourage you to personalise your ceremony and celebration to reflect your style.

To help preserve our farmhouse, we kindly ask that:

- Decorations inside the house are temporary only.
- Please do not use sticky tape, Blu Tack, nails, screws or adhesives on walls, doors or furniture, as these can damage the paint and finishes.

Freestanding decorations and removable styling items are encouraged.

What happens with rubbish and pack down?

We ask that all personal belongings, decorations and rubbish are removed at the conclusion of your celebration. External suppliers are responsible for removing their own equipment and leaving their work areas clean.

Are children welcome?

Yes. Silver Gums is a family-friendly property, and children are welcome to attend your celebration.

Let's create something beautiful together
