

Storyline Ceremonies - Concise Vow Renewal and Commitment Ceremony Service Contract

To be treated as a summary of the Service Agreement with Terms and Conditions provided by Storyline Ceremonies.

Your Responsibilities, with “We” referring to the couple wanting the ceremony!

1. We acknowledge that our vow renewal or commitment ceremony is not legally binding and are okay with Ben clarifying this with the guests in attendance.
2. We will pay fees on time and we understand that if we do not, Ben cannot guarantee his involvement in our ceremony.
3. If we or our guests break any of Ben’s equipment, we will be required to pay for replacements.
4. We will let Ben know if any important details about the ceremony changes.
5. We will follow state and federal laws and advice regarding natural disasters or pandemics that may affect the ceremony, up to and including cancelling the ceremony.
6. If plans change and we want a refund, we acknowledge that a full refund is not always possible depending on how soon the ceremony is. The further out from the ceremony, the more likely for a full refund!
7. We will share any photos taken during the ceremony that we are comfortable with Ben using and leave him a review after the ceremony!

What about Ben’s responsibilities?

1. Ben will be the best celebrant he can possibly be, including by arriving 30 to 45 minutes prior to the ceremony commencing, performing the ceremony script as agreed upon, and running the ceremony in a safe and professional manner.
2. Ben will be available to help organise your ceremony to your liking via in-person catchups, phone, email, and social media.
3. Ben will write your personalised ceremony script to your liking, and drafts of the script will be sent to you for approval. Ben can also help workshop vow writing!
4. Ben will provide his PA system for use in the ceremony if required, and can operate music for the ceremony through it.
5. Ben will provide those with the Always All In package professionally printed vow cards to use and to keep as souvenirs.
6. Ben will supply you with a tax invoice for the ceremony fee and any other fees agreed upon. Ben will clearly lay out other optional services and their costs (such as a ceremony rehearsal, additional rituals and travel costs), ensuring you are aware of costs before invoicing you.
7. Ben will follow state and federal laws and advice regarding natural disasters or pandemics that may affect the ceremony, up to and including cancelling the ceremony.
8. Ben will touch base with you on the day to check all is going according to plan.
